"RUSHVILLE WAS GREAT"

"Uncle Joe" Cannon Ironically Compares Our City With Coney Island.

Says Labor and Capital are Doing too "Blanked" Well to Furnish Items For Paper

Yesterday's Indianapolis News says: Down at the Union station, at noon today, "Uncle Joe" Cannon wandered from a Rushville train to one that would take him to his home in Danville, Ill.

"I am going home," he said, and I am glad." He was unattended, except for the presence of a reporter. Nor was he smoking; it was too near lunch time, he said. He got off one parlor car and into another. "More comfortable this hot weather," said the speaker.

Speaker Cannon spent Sunday at Rushville with "Jack" Gowdy and Congressman "Jim" Watson. He is now going home to spend a few weeks before the campaign opens.

"Rushville was great," he said; "after Coney Island," and he smiled that smile that twists up one corner of his mouth—that smile into which the rakish looking cigar usually fits.

"Of course, I went to Coney Island. About 50,000 others went to Coney Island that same afternoon, also, and we all had a good time. The whole crowd seemed to be more or less of a family crowd; men and their wives and their kids; fellows and their sweethearts; then just kids. Pretty decent crowd; not all saints, I suppose, but a good average; about as good a 50,000 as one might find anywhere outside of a church—perhaps the average was better. Be careful about stating that, however," the speaker admonished, "we must be careful."

"You were careful at the Island?" was suggested.

He was. He staid there only six hours, one right after another. He went at 5 o'clock and remained until 11. "I might have staid two hours longer, for the 'places' do not close until 1 o'clock, but I didn't," said "Uncle Joe." "Don't you think that six hours was enough?"

That was agreed to. "Uncle Joe" placed his suit case down on one end and sat on the other. His train did not leave for several minutes.

"If any one is inclined to make an issue of my trip to the island, I am ready," he half mused. "I'll stand by the island, and the people will stand by me."

"Now, as to the attacks of the labor organizations on me," he continued, looking at his watch to see if it wasn't time to go. "Labor is in good shape; so is capital. In fact, my boy, both are doing so—well that there won't be any job for newspaper men before long. Now be careful about using that extra hard word that I just threw in," he said in parenthesis. "Use it if you like, but let it be a little mild one, said in a gentle way. That's the way it was said."

And no one could have looked more gentle than "Uncle Joe" sitting on the top end of his suitcase.

"After all, people are not going to listen much to what we speakers say next fall, anyhow; they will be too da—(you see what habit does; I didn't go to say that)—they will be too busy to listen. I am going to talk some, however, starting about the first of September."

"Well, I must go," he concluded, rising from his seat. "Come over and see me some time. We haven't any Coney Island, but—well, just come, anyhow. Goodbye." He stepped into the coach, and then the train started, just if it had been waiting for him. He was going home, and he was glad.

Probably the heaviest man in Europe was the late Hans Fromm, of Willenberg, in Eastern Prussia, a hotel keeper. He weighed 535 pounds. A showman in Paris once offered him a large sum, and he was willing to accept it, but he could not enter any passenger car and refused to travel in a freight car.

A SMALL WRECK AT SHELBYVILLE

An east-bound freight train on the Big Four was wrecked two miles east of Shelbyville last night at 9 o'clock, caused by the breaking of a coupling rod, which resulted in the derailment and smashing up of six flat cars. No persons were injured, but Conductor Wade and his brakeman were badly shaken up. Traffic was delayed for several hours. Arrangements were made to send all passenger trains between Cincinnati and Indianapolis by way of Anderson. The wreck train was ordered from Indianapolis to clear away the debris, which was piled high alongside the tracks.

SENSATION AT KNIGHTSTOWN

The Body of a Baby is Found Under Bridge With Skull Crushed.

[Special to the Daily Republican.]
Knightstown, Ind., July 31.—The body of a week-old baby girl was found under a bridge here today, with its skull crushed and broken in numerous places, indicating murder. The officers investigating the case promise to make arrests later.

CARNIVAL WILL OPEN TONIGHT

Many Attractions Have Been Provided by Catholic Young Men.

Preparations for the carnival to be given this week by the young men of the Catholic church were completed today. The "big show" will begin at 8 o'clock tonight and will last four nights.

The carnival grounds are located in the rear of the church. Arrangements have been made for lighting them with electricity. Free band concerts will be given each evening by the Rushville band. The first concert begins tonight at 8 o'clock. Another feature of the carnival will be a vaudeville show in the church hall, which has been fitted up especially for the occasion. Miss Norma Smith daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Smith, will play for this show and Mr. Denning Havens will give specialties between acts. Other features of the carnival will be the "slide for life," the country store, the fish pond, baby racks, "Marino," the Magic Wonder, moving picture show and a dime museum. There will be plenty of refreshment and lunch stands and other attractions. The carnival will be much larger than that of last year and a good time is assured all who attend. The proceeds from the carnival will go toward the new organ purchased for the church.

NO CHAUTAUQUA FOR SHELBYVILLE

There will be no Chautauqua at Shelbyville this year, as was intended when the sessions closed last year. Rev. H. O. Pritchard, who was interested in the Chautauqua work there with Rev. H. H. Harmon last year, has stated that they would not take up the work there this season on account of his absence from the city. Last year's entertainments in Shelbyville were not a success, financially.

The British Home Office has ordered that henceforth convicts shall be fed on only colonial canned meats.

WENT THROUGH THE TRUNK

Steps to Which Detectives Descended to Procure "Evidence."

Letters Mrs. Hartje is Alleged to Have Written to Coachman Were Stolen.

Pittsburg, July 31.—Beginning with the sixth week and what is expected to be the final week of the Hartje divorce trial Monday was taken up with the long-expected evidence as to the manner in which Augustus Hartje procured the love-letters alleged to have been written by Mrs. Mary Scott Hartje to Tom Madine, the coachman co-respondent in the case.

John B. Staubb, a private detective, swore that on two occasions he opened Madine's trunk at the house in which Madine roomed. He declared that after the letters had been shown to Andrew Fisher, Hartje's brother-in-law, they were mailed by Staubb to Attorney J. Scott Ferguson, chief counsel for Hartje. Staubb was subjected to a vigorous cross-examination. He was unable to tell what other articles were in the trunk, and several times became tangled under the fire of cross-examination.

Detective Anderson corroborated Staubb in regard to the second looting of the trunk. The superintendent of the detective agency also testified as to the directions given him and receiving the letters from them.

Andrew Fisher, brother-in-law of Augustus Hartje, was the last witness of the day. He assumed responsibility for directing the detectives and said the detectives for his brother did not know where the letters came from until he told them.

Incidental to the story of the robbery of the Madine trunk, it developed that a letter and telegram signed by John F. Scott, father of Mrs. Hartje, was found in the trunk along with the forty honeyed missives which the wife of the millionaire is charged with writing.

It is alleged that a paragraph in this letter read: "On the advice of Mr. Freeman I am sending you sixty dollars." Neither the telegram nor letter were read in court.

LLOYD DECIDED TO PLEAD GUILTY

The Connersville News says: Lloyd Flora and Dennis Swim had a conference in the jail and it is thought patched up their differences. Monday morning Flora entered a plea of guilty to the theft of the suit case and was fined one dollar and costs and sentenced to one day in jail. One of the court officers remarked that the suit case and all it contained when taken did not appear to be worth fifty cents.

THE JEWS ARE FASTING TODAY

All Orthodox Jews Eat Nothing on the Ninth Day of Aw.

Today is the ninth day of Aw or the day of mourning among all orthodox Jews or religious Jews in the world. The day is one of many peculiarities, resembling in some slight particulars our own memorial days, but differing in many other particulars.

Just 1927 years ago today, Jerusalem was destroyed for the second time by the famous Titus. Today is a day of mourning over the lives lost on that occasion and also those who have since died. In Russia today will be one of the greatest since the old Bible times. Many have whole families to mourn for.

The period of Aw commenced nine days ago and during this period, no Jew will eat any meat. Today, July 31, is the closing of the nine days' fast, but the Jewish laws make the observance of this day most difficult to keep.

Among the Jews, the ninth day of Aw commenced at six o'clock Monday evening and ends Tuesday night at the same hour. Not a morsel of food will be tasted during that time by an orthodox Jew. Not even a swallow of water will be taken.

Jews will avoid all places where there is any music and will permit no joyous festivities within the borders of their homes.

Monday night where it was possible, all Jews went to a synagogue, where they seated themselves on low benches. They removed their shoes and spent the evening chanting prayers and listening to low mumbling songs.

This morning the same thing was repeated, following which the graves of the departed were visited and tears shed thereon.

The day is a great one among all Jewish classes and nations and wherever one finds a Jew he will find him observing the above mentioned customs.

They were talking of European politics and the subject soon narrowed down to the Kaiser. "He is so belligerent," complained some one. "Indeed, you surprise me!" exclaimed his companion. "I was always under the impression that he was a thin man."

TO PREVENT SO MUCH SMOKE

Great Claims are Being Made on Pulverized Coal.

Discovery By Benjamin J. Walker of Erie, Pennsylvania.

For years the entire country has been complaining of the smoke nuisance. Hundreds of thousands of dollars have been expended on some consumers, stokers, steam jets and other appliances. Now comes the invention with a simple device that a schoolboy can understand.

Smoke is caused by feeding coal into the furnace. The fuel, when thrown on to a bed of hot coal, ignites rapidly and throws off a volume of carbon that rushes out of the flues and then falls on everything surrounding the plant.

Benjamin J. Walker, of Erie, Pa., was searching for a means of destroying the nuisance in the Erie Malleable Iron works. He went to the root of the trouble—the feeding of the fuel into the furnace. Instantaneous combustion was what he wanted and here is the plan he evolved. Instead of passing the coal into the furnace in the old-fashioned way he fed it in a pulverized form into a hopper, whence it passed by air pressure through two wrought iron pipes into the furnace. Combustion instantly took place and the coal dust was burned in suspension. No smoke nor burned out grate bars no back breaking stirring up of the fire, no gang of men tending the furnaces. The invention was purchased a few months ago by Mark Packard, of Buffalo, a multi-millionaire mine operator. For years he has never been able to find a market for the coal dust, or bug dust, as it is called in the business. The new combustion invention settles that question for coal as fine as flour can be used.

The quantity of ashes to be removed is reduced to sixty or seventy per cent.

ALONZO RICE IS CLIMBING UPWARD

The Shelbyville News says: "Alonzo Leroy Rice, Shelby county's poetic bard, is rapidly rising to fame and prominence in the world of literature. He has passed the point in the writing of poetry where he has to send his manuscript to a dozen different places to get the editors even to look at it, but instead he gets letters from as many places asking him to furnish poetry to them exclusively. When such magazines as the Woman's World, Young People's Weekly, the Youth's Companion, Smart Set, sit up and take notice of a person, it means something in such a personage's life."

W. O. Headlee, one of the managers of the Rushville Chautauqua, is circulating a paper among the merchants in an effort to get them to close their stores at 7 p. m. during the Chautauqua period so that the clerks and the merchants themselves may attend. The paper has been signed by seventeen merchants, who agree to close provided that all other merchants in their respective lines also close.

WILL MAKE THE KEYNOTE SPEECH

Congressman James E. Watson Leaves For West Virginia.

Congressman Watson today wired Senator Elkins, of West Virginia that he would accept the invitation to deliver the keynote address at the State Republican convention to be held at Kenson tomorrow. Mr. Watson left for that place at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

WONDERS WHERE THEY ARE TO COME FROM

Louis Ludlow, in the Indianapolis Star says: "Clay C. Hunt, a prominent Republican of New Castle, while here yesterday was asked his opinion of Ex-State Chairman Heruly's prediction that 800 Henry county Republicans will vote against Representative James E. Watson."

"I don't know where the other 799 are coming from," he said.

BOGUS VINEGAR ON THE MARKET

State Health Board Again Sounds Warning to the People.

State Chemist Reveals Results of His Examination of Vinegars on Sale.

Probably not a grocer in Rushville willingly sells or knowingly buys to sell food articles that are not up to the standard of requirements, but according to the State Health Board there is a vast quantity of material on the shelves of the grocers throughout the State that will not stand the food tests of the present day. Just now vinegar is being subjected to a rigid inquiry and startling developments have been recently uncovered by the board.

Not long ago H. E. Barnard, chemist of the board, was in a certain Indiana city and incidentally found four barrels of alleged vinegar that did not in any manner comply with the standards set by the State Board of Health. It had been shipped to a grocer by a vinegar manufacturer in St. Louis. M. Barnard notified the grocer that the vinegar must be properly labeled in such a manner as clearly show the customer the kind of stuff he was buying or that it should not be sold at all.

In the monthly bulletin of the State Board of Health issued a few days ago, and which contained the report traveling men and other visitors to food products that have been made in the State chemical laboratory, the following in regard to vinegar is found:

"All of the thirty-five samples of cider vinegar analyzed were sent to the laboratory for analysis by wholesalers and retailers, who wished to know the quality of the goods they were selling. Most of these samples were evidently the product of one house, and if the quality of the goods, rather than the guarantee, is to be accepted as evidence, it is deliberately foisting upon its customers an artificial, colored grain vinegar as a pure cider vinegar product."

"Under the present interstate law it is possible for us to reach the firm and prosecute it for persistent violation of our food laws, and we must content ourselves with making the customers pay the penalty for handling such goods. Such action savors more of prosecution, however, for we are convinced of the honest intent of many of the firms who are handling the vinegar, and realize that they are but the victims of a determined purpose to misbrand and misrepresent goods for the purpose of illegitimate profits."

BIG SPEAKERS IN THE DISTRICT

The Sixth Will Not Lack For Oratory During the Campaign.

The Sixth district will have some big political guns in it this fall. Uncle Joe Cannon, speaker of the House, who with Congressman Watson, will tour Maine in August and later make some Indiana speeches, will deliver two or three speeches in this district, one of which will be at New Castle. The Democrats want Bryan in this district, and he will probably talk a time or two here. With Congressman Watson and candidates B. F. Dailey and T. H. Kuhn speaking there will evidently be an abundance of oratory.

—Ad V. Spivey left yesterday for Pittsburg, Pa., on business connected with his firm, A. Bush & Sons, implement dealers.

RUSHVILLE, IND., JULY 31, 1906.

"What is sauce for the goose, is sauce for the gander." The two-cent mileage law in Virginia has been declared unconstitutional, on the ground that it is taking property without due process of law. The people who have to pay higher fares, however, feel that the same rule might be applied to their case.

As soon as William Jennings Bryan arrives in this country, which will be the latter part of August, the Democratic campaign managers will send him to a number of States where factional strife among the Republicans give some promise of Democratic success. His voice will doubtless be heard in Iowa and Wisconsin, Indiana and Missouri, and probably in Illinois and Ohio.

The dilemma of First district Democrats on account of the prospective visit of Thomas Taggart to the nominating convention at Petersburg, Aug. 1st, has been the source of a great deal of fun. Taggart was invited to attend the convention before the State's raid on the French Lick gaming house, and it was given out that he would make a speech against the governor. The purpose was to throw a few hot jollies into the so-called liberal element of Evansville, in the hope of prejudicing some of the Republicans down there against Gov. Hanly's law-enforcing policy. Since the invitation to Taggart was given and accepted, however, the capture of the gambling houses attached to Mr. Taggart's hotel has placed the Democratic national chairman under such a scorching fire of criticism that the First district Democrats have been looking for somebody to help them let go. The same man who begged Taggart to come to Petersburg to make a speech, now want to keep him just as far from the First district as possible.

In promoting the growth and welfare of a town or city this argument is generally advanced: "There is just one way to make a city, and that is to patronize home merchants and industries, even if you can save a few cents by going elsewhere."

This argument is good Republican doctrine, but the Republicans extend it still farther. They do not restrict it to any city or State, but they make it cover the whole nation. When the Republicans say "Patronize home merchants and industries," they do not mean merely the industries and the merchants of any particular city, town or locality, but they mean the entire United States. In carrying out their doctrine the Republicans, by a tariff system which has given a preference to the American over the European or the Asiatic producer, has built up an industrial system which has placed America far in the lead of all the rest of the countries of the world in the variety and the scope of its activities, and they have made the American people the most prosperous persons on the globe.

"UNCLE JOE" ENROUTE

Speaker of House of Representatives Visits Indiana.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 31.—Speaker Joseph Cannon was here yesterday enroute home from Oyster Bay, where he attended a conference with President Roosevelt and other Republican leaders at which their plan of campaign for this year was outlined. He spent Saturday and Sunday with Congressman James E. Watson of Rushville, arranging for their trip through out the country under the direction of the congressional campaign committee. He will spend the next month at home. He referred briefly to the attacks of labor organizations on him. In a characteristic way he said that labor and capital are doing so d—d well that they won't have time to worry about him. He also said that the people are so busy that he doesn't think they will listen very attentively to political speeches this year, but he is going to give them an opportunity to listen to him.

Chairman Fanning has issued a call for the Seventh district Democratic congressional convention here Aug. 14. William V. Rooker has no opposition for the nomination. The First district Democrats are arranging to have a monster demonstration at Petersburg tomorrow, when the congressional convention will be held. It has been the understanding that Major G. V. Menzies of Mt. Vernon would be nominated without opposition, but a boom has been started for Mayor Boehne of Evansville, and his name may be presented. The official call for the Third district Republican congressional convention has been issued. It will be held Aug. 23 at New Albany. George H. Hester of New Albany will probably be nominated, as he is the only candidate.

Charles Seifert of Washington, who was recently appointed a member of the executive committee of the Republican state committee, spent yesterday here with Chairman Goodrich and other politicians. He predicted that Congressman Chaney of Sullivan will be re-elected in spite of the fact that the Second was formerly a Democratic district. He bases his prediction on the change in population in the district, as he says the Republicans have gained two votes to the Democrats' one by the influx of new settlers. He does not believe that Cyrus E. Davis of Bloomfield, present Democratic nominee, will be as strong as former Congressman Miers was.

Chairman Goodrich is here again looking after the details of the state committee headquarters. Secretary Riddick has been removed to Winona because of illness and probably will not be able to resume work for some time. Although the campaign will not be opened for six or eight weeks, the chairman is very busy getting the organization in shape for the fight. He is very hopeful that a nice big majority will be rolled up for the ticket in November, but he is taking no chances.

Vice President Fairbanks left here yesterday for Fremont, O., to deliver an address Wednesday at the ceremonies attending the re-interment of the body of Major George Groghan, a noted revolutionary patriot. The vice president will be one of the principal speakers. He may go to Springfield, O., before he returns, to visit some of his relatives. The vice president is getting ready to leave in August on a speaking tour including meetings in several Western states.

TARTARS AT WAR

Ancient Feud With the Armenians Breaks Out Anew.

A REGULAR CAMPAIGN

Fighting Is Progressing In Numerous Villages, Tartars Concentrating Against Askeran Pass.

This Is the Form of Old-Time Warfare In Which Quarter Is Neither Asked Nor Given.

St. Petersburg, July 31.—Advices received here from Tiflis show that a regular campaign is progressing between Armenians and Tartars in that section. Yesterday large forces of Tartars attacked Askeran Pass, which was occupied by Armenians, but were unable to break the Armenian cordon. Fighting is now going on in the village of Haramurt, Haladad and Karanluh. The Tartars are concentrating against Askeran Pass.

On July 27 Kurds attacked the villages of Kalbalkhed and Kiermischen and were endeavoring to force an entrance into Shusha. At the latter place they were repulsed by Russian troops under General Zolozhakov.

News received here from Yelisavetpol says that communication between Agdam and Shusha has been interrupted for five days. Firing between Armenians and Tartars continued from July 25 to July 28. The fighting near Shusha increased in severity on July 29 and resulted in the burning of the town. The government has dispatched reinforcements to the scene.

IN DANGER OF EXILE

Men Who Signed Viborg Manifesto in the Czar's Bad Books.

St. Petersburg, July 31.—The public prosecutor has started proceedings against the members of the lower house of parliament who signed the Viborg manifesto. The charge under which the signers of the manifesto will be brought to trial is violation of Article 129 of the criminal code, which provides for "attempts to overthrow the existing government." This is virtually high treason, the maximum penalty is hard labor in the mines.

No arrests have yet been reported and the Constitutional Democrats do not anticipate anything approaching punishment of their representatives. It is understood that the arrested will be admitted to bail pending trial. The Constitutional Democrats are chiefly apprehensive that the possibility of prosecution held over the heads of their leaders will render them ineligible for re-election. In the same manner that Prof. Milukoff and M. Hessel and others were excluded from the last lower house.

Socialist and Radical members of the late house may have to cool their heels in cells for a long time, and thus be prevented from continuing the full-fledged revolutionary agitation upon which they are now embarked. Many of these ex-members are now living under cover in the houses of friends in St. Petersburg or have gone into hiding in the provinces. The motives of the government for abandoning its attitude not to prosecute the signers of the Viborg manifesto, as set forth recently by Premier Stolypin in an interview, is not stated, but evidently it was influenced by the need of doing something to counteract the effect of the Viborg address.

Revolutionists Take Revenge.

Warsaw, July 31.—M. Burago, the leading official of the Sochatyeh district, and a policeman who was escorting him, were shot dead by revolutionists near here in revenge for the part they had taken in the repression of the agrarian strike movement.

Robbed the Mail Stage.

Gomel, July 31.—The mail stage running from here has been attacked by robbers, who killed the postman and severely wounded the driver. They got away with the registered mail. Two arrests have been made.

Warsaw Plunderers Want Booze.

Warsaw, July 31.—During the last three days thirty of the state liquor shops here have been plundered. Most of the liquor shops still doing business have been closed by order of the excise authorities.

Populous City Destroyed.

Kuznetsk, July 31.—A large part of this city, which has a population of 25,000 people, has been destroyed by fire. The losses are heavy.

Hints of a Consular Scandal.

Washington, July 31.—The cruiser Baltimore has sailed from Sydney to Cavite. She has been in Australian waters on a mission of the state department, assisting in an inquiry concerning the alleged misdoings of one of the American consuls. Reports regarding the result of the investigation have not yet been received.

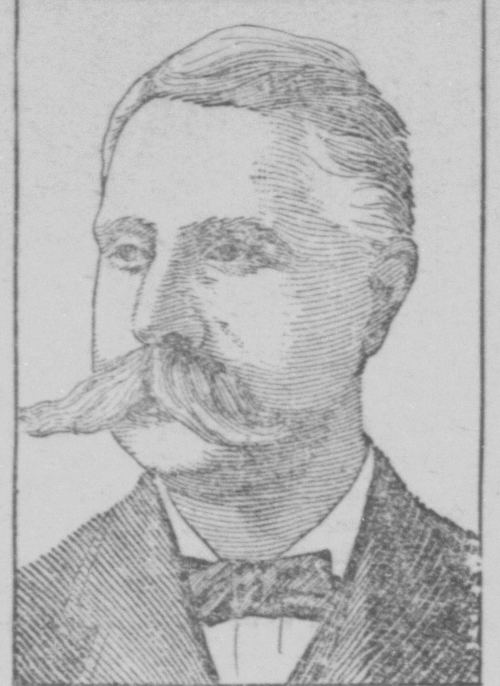

Madison, Wis., July 31.—The dead body of Joseph Bardenheir, a jeweler, missing for a week, was found in the woods three miles east of here. He had been robbed and murdered. Bardenheir came here from Chicago about six months ago.

FUGITIVE RETURNS

Former New Jersey Mayor Will Face Embarrassment Charge.

Paterson, N. J., July 31.—Former Mayor William H. Belcher, who has surrendered himself at the county jail after having been a fugitive from justice for about a year, told the story of his wanderings. He said that he went to Bartlett, N. H., to recover from rheumatism and stopped there for a time under an assumed name.

"I have been in Boston and the White mountains," he said. "Only once I left the country for a short trip to Canada. I have been in pretty nearly every state in the Union since I went away. I have not seen a face I knew since I left Paterson. I am glad to be here, although I am a prisoner."

WILLIAM H. BELCHER.

"What have you done with the money you got?" he was asked.

"That is the subject of which I am not willing to speak at this time," replied Belcher. "If $100,000 is gone someone else must have got it and blamed it on me; but I shall stand alone. The stories that I am going to implicate several officers in the city government are false. There were many times when I was absent when I would have welcomed arrest."

A dozen indictments have been found against Belcher, in which he is accused of embezzling about $150,000. The Manchester Building and Loan association of which he was president, was forced to go into bankruptcy.

Louisianian Shot by Ex-Wife.

Shreveport, La., July 31.—Charles Attaway was shot and instantly killed at Blanchard, near this place, by his divorced wife, Mrs. Will Kent, Jr. Attaway, who was insane, went to Kent's home and demanded his child. Kent appeared on the scene and while he was wrestling with Attaway, Mrs. Kent secured a rifle and shot her former husband through the heart.

Marblehead's Mission Ended.

A BOILER LET GO

Two Men Killed and Several Injured In Explosion at Vincennes.

SAILED THROUGH ROOF

Terrific Force of the Explosion Carried Heavy Boiler Up and a 100 Yards Away.

Historic House In Which Gov. Harrison Lived at Vincennes Caught In Wreck.

Vincennes, Ind., July 31.—Two men were instantly killed and several others injured by the explosion of a boiler in the plant of the Vincennes Paper Mill company.

The two men killed are Harry Borders, a single man, fifty years old, and Lafayette Lichey, a married man, thirty-five years old, both of Vincennes. Charles Connors, forty years old, was blown about fifty feet and badly injured.

The engine room is in a separate building, about 100 feet from the main plant. The boiler room is completely wrecked, and one complete boiler was blown over the top of the main building 100 yards distant. In its passage it tore off part of the roof of the main building, tore down a tree and fell in the middle of the street. Fragments were blown several hundred yards distant and many windows in the neighborhood were shattered. The loss entailed is $15,000, covered by insurance.

The historic house which originally belonged to Governor Harrison of the Northwest Territory was partially wrecked, every window being shattered. Mrs. Edward Shepard, wife of the owner of the mill, and who was residing in the Harrison house, was slightly bruised.

MAKING UP LOST TIME

A Pennsylvania Fast Train Collided in Columbus Yards.

Columbus, Ind., July 31.—While speeding at the rate of sixty-five miles an hour to make up lost time, the Pennsylvania fast train No. 26, Indianapolis to Louisville, collided in the yards here with a Madison branch train. Both engines were demolished and many cars were more or less damaged. The train crews saved themselves by leaping from the moving trains just before the impact.

While no passengers were killed, none escaped some injury. It is regarded as most remarkable that no one was injured seriously. It is said that the Pennsylvania fast train was fifteen minutes late when it left Indianapolis and in an effort to make up the lost time was being pushed at high speed at the time of the collision. The blame for the accident has not been determined. An investigation is being made in order that culpability may be placed properly.

Brakeman Cut to Pieces.

Franklin, Ind., July 31.—Henry H. Murphy of Jeffersonville was killed at the siding north of this city on the Louisville division of the Pennsylvania lines. Murphy was twenty-two years old, and was making his fourth run as brakeman. He was on the engine when the vegetable train took the siding to permit the passenger train to pass, and then he passed on the runway of the engine, crossed the plot and was in the act of stepping off, when his foot caught and he fell in front of the locomotive and was literally cut to pieces.

Contentment Better Than Riches.

Rensselaer, Ind., July 31.—Elizur Sage, a nephew of the late Russell Sage, and who inherits $25,000 under the will, has declined to join with the other heirs in an effort to break the will. He lives on a rented farm near this city, and his life has been one of toil. He is the son of the late Elizur W. Sage, himself a farmer in reduced circumstances, and the elder brother of the money lender. The bequest will suffice for his wants, and with that he will be contented.

Washington, Pa., July 31.—Elmer Dempster, a negro, is the murderer of Mrs. Samuel Pearce and her three children at Canonsburg Sunday night. The child told her mother and Sunday evening Mrs. Pearce accused Dempster of the crime. He said she reached for a revolver on the mantel, that he overpowered her, took the weapon and shot her. Dempster then shot the children and fired the house.

Ashworth's Drug Store. The Busy One.

Clothes need not be a burden to you if you wear the right kind. Should a man go around without a collar on and in his shirt sleeves? If you do, will others think much of you? If others think well of you their good opinion will put you forward. No man is independent. We can help to put you forward by dressing well, you and your little men (if you are lucky enough to have them). We have put our summer goods (which you yet have a long time to wear) into the slaughter house. See how cheaply we can make you appear well and yet keep you cool. Coat and Pants from $5.00, $6.00, $7.00 up to $12.00.
